FOREIGN FIRMS SEND

More Than Score of Nations Represented By Seeking Trade.

More than twenty nations are repre-sented by visitors to the United States who are now making their headquarters at the branch offices of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, and who are seeking new trade relations.

Many of these men are members of foreign firms, which are preparing to make purchases here. Others are representatives of big commercial houses and offer unusual facilities for American manufacturers to establish agencies

The countries represented by these visitors are South and Central America, Australia. Russia, Italy, Argentina. Brazil, Bpain, India, China, Canada, Japan, South Africa, Bulgaria, New Zealand and several other countries.

Because of the foreign visitors flocking to the branch offices of the bureau in the leading industrial centers, the Government is dealing directly with buyers as well as sellers, it is pointed out in the bureau statement today, and bringing both classes of business men together so effectively that there are results—purchases of American goods and the making of contracts for agencies in other countries.

W. F. Smith Appointed Brother's Administrator

William F. Smith, brother of the late John J. Smith, yesterday was appointed by Justice McCov as administrator of the estate left by his brother, who died recently without a will. His bond was fixed at $20,000. The assets are listed at $34,000 with secured debts aggresating $15,000, and unsecured liabilities amounting to $17,000. The court is advised that the deceased, who was a decorator, with a business at $21 Thirteenth street northwest, had Government contracts at the time of his death. The petitioner urged his appointment that those contracts might be completed.

Imported Plush and Skin Horses Friday at 1/2 Regular Prices

These horses were bought abroad for this Christmas selling, but were delayed at the docks for over five months, and when landed here were not uncrated immediately. On opening the cases we found that moths had gotten into the cases and damaged the plush and skin of these fine horses. Our experts were set to work to put them into shape. The horses were thoroughly cleaned and the moths and their eggs eliminated, but the horses show signs of where they had been. We cannot return them nor get redress from the makers, therefore, we give you the chance to buy these imported horses at just half the prices we would ask if they were perfect. In other words, select now from imported horses that would regularly sall ut $7.45 to $24.95 for $3.73 to $12.48.
